

The Movie Shang-Chi

Michael: Did you see the new Marvel movie Shang-Chi?

Sarah: No, I haven't. My kids were planning to watch that this past weekend. But we had so much to do. Have you seen it?

Michael: Yeah, we saw it in the theatre. The show broke numerous box office records, and has grossed over $157 million worldwide.

Sarah: Wow! What is it about?

Michael: I don't want to spoil the whole thing for you. Basically, Shang-Chi clashes both with his past and his father as he's forced to return to the 10 Rings Organization. The opening bus fight scene is one of the best I've ever seen.

Sarah: Oh! Sounds cool! Don't tell me anything else now. I don't want any spoilers! But how does it compare to other Marvel movies?

Michael: You should go see it, then you can be the judge of that!
