

Grocery Shopping

Sarah: Olivia, do you want to go into the store first and gather the items that your school asked for? I'll go park my car.

Olivia: Sure mom, I should be mainly in the baked goods aisle. You can come and find me there later, OK?

Sarah: Sure thing. I'll do my shopping at the produce section first.

Olivia: Hey mom! Can you get bananas too? They're also on my list.

Sarah: Wow, look at you, you're so swift. Got all your items already? I'm not done yet. I can't believe inflation has pushed up prices so much.

Olivia: Come on, mom, make up your mind and be fast. I've got a ton of homework today. I got to get home fast.

Sarah: Alright alright, I'll speed up.
