

Fishing off the Beaten Track

Jill: Jack and Jill flew up the hill in their helicopter, with fishing rods and tackle box to catch fish in the water... Haha, how do you like my new and improved nursery rhyme?

Jack: Brilliant! Good one!

Jill: Do you prefer to be called a pilot or a fisherman?

Jack: Why not both? I think we've accomplished both today.

Jill: Just now that was a tough landing! I hope we brought your tackle box this time. Remember we forgot it on our last trip?

Jack: That was an unforgivable mistake! No disasters like that today!

Jill: My girlfriend is expecting another big trout from us today.

Jack: Oh yeah, I think she's in for a real treat. I have a feeling we'll have a big catch today!
