

Ready for a Hammerfest?

Michael: Hey Janine, have you signed up for our Hammerfest 2022?

Janine: I was going to, but I'm not sure my beater, or call it my old clunker, will be trail worthy.

Michael: But I even got you a team jersey already. Come on, get your beater fixed up. I have an excellent bike tech for you.

Janine: I was really debating whether I should splurge on a retro looking city bike. Lately, I was eyeing this particular cool looking saddle and a pannier.

Michael: Make up your mind, Janine. Be a team player.

Janine: Alright, I'll go to your bike tech and get my old clunker all tuned up!
